MVOC Application Form 2020-2021

STUDENTS Policy #3387 School District 93

EXTRA/CO-CURRICULAR ACTIVITIES CODE OF CONDUCT

Because students who participate in extra/co-curricular activities are representatives of the Bonneville Joint School District No. 93 and the community when performing in public, they are expected to behave in ways that are consistent with good sportsmanship, leadership, and appropriate moral conduct. The primary purpose of the extra/co-curricular activity program is to promote the physical, mental, aesthetic, social, emotional, and moral well-being of students through participation and competition.

Guidelines

1. All extra/co-curricular activities should be designed to promote character-building qualities of participation and leadership.
 - a. Students should not bring discredit to themselves, their family, the school, or the community.
 - b. Participants involved in Board-approved extra/co-curricular activities must demonstrate the same level of responsibility and behavior as is expected in the classroom. Students are expected to:
 - 1) show respect for faculty and other members of the school community;
 - 2) refrain from engaging in or being an accomplice to illegal acts such as, but not limited to, stealing, extortion, or vandalism;
 - 3) refrain from the use of profanity, obscenities, gestures, any acts of gross disrespect or insubordination or the representation of such acts;
 - 4) refrain from actions that could disrupt or invade the rights of others or cause disorder.
2. Adult supervisors, advisors, and/or coaches are responsible for the actions of the student group, team, or club and as such are expected to require ethical and moral behavior of students during all performances and/or competitions.
3. Administrators, participants, adult supervisors, parents, spirit groups, and support/booster groups involved with extra/co-curricular activities are expected to promote sportsmanship, ethics, morality, and integrity in all phases of the process.
 - a. The general appearance, dress and conduct of a group or team must bring credit to the group, the school, and the community.
 - b. Participants carry the responsibilities of setting good examples at all times, on any school premises or at any school sponsored activity, regardless of location.
 - c. Any display of unsportsmanlike conduct toward an opponent or official, or the use of profanity, vulgarity, or lewd or obscene comments or gestures is prohibited while participating in a practice, contest, or performance and will result in counseling by the head coach, advisor and/or school administrator and may result in a possible suspension.
4. Any member of the school administration has the right and duty to interrupt or suspend any proceedings if the actions of a team or group are judged to be in poor taste or endangering the safety of students and staff.

DEFINITIONS:

Co-curricular activities: District and/or school authorized activities held in conjunction with a credit-bearing class but outside of the regular school day including, but not limited to, debate, drama, drill team, and music.

Extra-curricular activities: District and/or school authorized activities which take place outside of the regular school day and do not involve class credit, including, but not limited to athletics, student organizations, and community activities for which high school letters are awarded.

On any school premises or at any school sponsored activity, regardless of location:

shall include, but not be limited to buildings, facilities, and grounds on the school campus, school busses, school parking areas; and the location of any school sponsored activity. This includes instances in which the conduct occurs off the school premises but impacts a school related activity.

Internet Publication Consent Form

Protection of private information on school web sites-Because internet publications are available to the entire world, special care should be taken to protect the privacy of students and staff. No personal information about students and staff, such as home addresses and telephone numbers, shall be included on a school web site. In accordance with District Policy Student Records there will be no release of information on students, pictures or video. Photo/Video Permission – We have several classes that will be using photography or videography as part of their curriculum. The top portion of this permission slip is for use at Mountain Valley Elementary only for things such as our Website, and for instructional purposes. These publications and broadcasts will not be distributed and/or shown to profit. This also is a release for the media to interview/photograph the students.

ASSUMPTION OF RISK

Release and Healthcare Verification

I, the undersigned, agree to indemnify and hold harmless, Bonneville Joint School District No. 93 and Mountain Valley Elementary School and their officers, agents and employees from any claims, damages and actions of any kind or nature, whether at law or in equity, arising from my participation in the Mountain Valley Outdoors Club (MVOC) provided that such liability is not attributable to the sole negligence of the School District or School. I realize that my Child's participation in this activity involves risk of injury, including but not limited to tendonitis, strains, sprains, bursitis, fractures, delayed muscle soreness, contusions, abrasions, serious eye damage and even the possibility of death. Also, I recognize that there are many other risks of injury including serious and disabling injuries which may arise due to my Child's participation in this activity and that it is not possible to specifically list each and every individual injury risk. By signing this form I desire, consent and voluntarily allow my child to take part in all such activities. Knowing the material risks and appreciating, knowing and reasonably anticipating that other injuries and death is a possibility, I assume all the risks normally incident to the nature of the activities and agree that the School District, School or any of its officers, agents and employees conducting such activities will not be responsible for any damages or injuries resulting to my Child.

Furthermore, I also confirm that I have appropriate healthcare insurance for this activity or if not, that I will not rely upon the School District or School for medical expenses. Also, I understand that any injury incurred and the resulting medical expense from that injury will be my responsibility and the School District or School will not be responsible for any related expenses.
